Remember when a tiny boy listened to a nursery tale...

... and already you had made plans for his education. Remember, too, how the tousled curls of your little girl were still damp from her nap . . . and later you saw that hair smooth and shining under her wedding veil.

From the earliest moments, parents plan for a "better life" for their precious charges. In the same way, a Trust Under Will can carry out your future plans just as you direct, while sparing your loved ones the strain of assuming the burden which accompanies the handling of an Estate. By arranging for a Trust Under Will, your family will benefit in two ways. First, your long-range plans will be accomplished. Second, you will have placed your affairs in competent, understanding hands.

A Trust Under Will, naming this bank as Trustee, may be exactly the type of arrangement for your personal situation. So visit our Trust Department with your attorney, won't you? Let's sit down together and discuss your family's future.
